ANNOUNCING A NEW CPES THESIS OR DISSERTATION AWARD

---

CPES 2020 Award Nominations Due December 1

The Canadian Philosophy of Education Society has instituted an annual CPES Thesis or Dissertation Award in order to recognize an outstanding thesis or dissertation that addresses significant issues in philosophy of education. CPES invites submissions from all philosophical traditions in either English or French. Authors must be members of CPES at the time of submission, and the thesis or dissertation has to be completed at a Canadian university.

Award recipients will receive a certificate plus a cash award of one hundred dollars ($100.00). If award recipients have not already presented a paper at CSSE based upon their thesis or dissertation research they will be invited to present their paper during the annual CPES conference.

The next submission deadline is 1 December 2019 and is for Ed.D. and Ph.D. dissertations only. Please send theses, nominations, or queries to:

Dr. Scott Priestman (Scott.Priestman@viu.ca),
OR

Dre. Marina Schwimmer (schwimmer.marina@uqam.ca),

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Greetings Colleagues in CAFE/ACÉFÉ,

As the minutes count to the 2020 CSSE deadline, I'd like to provide you with a little 'heads up'... We are in the early stages of planning an interdisciplinary pre-conference (to be held 30 May 2020) where participants will explore the theme "Bridging the Divides" to discover and discuss interconnections between history, philosophy, sociology and other foundational educational disciplines. Coming Soon: please watch for further details and an invitation to participate!

Looking forward to seeing you at CSSE

Best regards,
Lynn

CONGRATULATIONS TO SHIRLEY VAN NULAND!

Dr. Shirley Van Nuland received the Darrell Bloom Award for sustained services to the promotion of educator preparation. This award recognizes individuals who have consistently contributed to the preparation of educators during their service to the International Council on Education for Teachers (ICET) and/or their institution. We celebrate the international recognition of Shirley's dedicated work to improve the educational experiences and outcomes of learners through her contributions to enhancing the quality of teaching and learning and improving life opportunities for young people around the world.

Shirley received the award from the ICET during the 2019 ICET World Assembly held in Johannesburg, South Africa. A wonderful honour. Shirley – we salute you!

SAVE THE DATE: ACHE - CHEA BIENNIAL CONFERENCE 2020

Please save the 22nd to 25th of October, 2020 for a trip to Victoria to attend the Biennial CHEA conference. It will be held at the Inn at Laurel Point (<https://www.laurelpoint.com>). Details will follow. We look forward to seeing you all there!
